Michell

In this issue we are publishing two of the Schumacher Lectures 1979. In the next issue we will be publishing the third — 'Lateral Thinking' by Edward de Bono. Dr. E. F. Schumacher, when alive, wrote in Resurgence regularly and supported it wholeheartedly. After his death it was our privilege to launch the Schumacher Society and organise lectures in his memory. The 1979 lectures were given by Fritjof Capra, John Michell and Edward de Bono. The questions and issues raised by these three visionaries are urgent and need to be spread as far and wide as possible. If you would like to receive more copies of this issue, please let us know.

Thank you

The response to our special gift-offer has been tremendous. It's not possible to thank you all individually, therefore we would like to express our most sincere thanks here. Only through such support can Resurgence keep growing. In spite of a greater awareness of the problems of alienation, pollution, nuclear power and resource wastage, our society seems to be heading towards increased centralisation and bureaucracy while longing for more economic growth. With this background we feel even more strongly that Resurgence has an important role to play.

Because of the increasing cost of printing and postage it is difficult to keep our heads above water and therefore we have been forced to increase our price. The annual subscription goes up to £5, the overseas rate to $15 and the airmail rate to $20. However we are making a special concessionary rate of £4 for O.A.P.s and Students and a special offer—IF YOU SUBSCRIBE OR RENEW YOUR SUBSCRIPTION BY 28TH FEBRUARY the rate will still be £4. We hope that all of you will still be able to afford to stay with us. By continuing to subscribe you enable us to carry on and to reach people who are looking for alternative answers and philosophies. Do not drop out.
